THE [PUNJAB] PURE FOOD ORDINANCE, 1960
(VII of 1960)

[11th March, 1960]

An

Ordinance
to consolidate and amend the law relating to the preparation and sale of foods in the province of [the Punjab].

Preamble.– WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the preparation and sale of foods in the province of [the Punjab];

NOW, THEREFORE, in pursuance of the Presidential Proclamation of the seventh day of October, 1958, and having received the previous instructions of the President, the Governor of West Pakistan is pleased, in exercise of all powers enabling him in that behalf, to make and promulgate the following Ordinance: –

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and application.– (1) This Ordinance may be called the [Punjab] Pure Food Ordinance, 1960.

(2) It extends to the whole of the province of [the Punjab], except the Tribal Areas.

(3) It shall come into operation in respect of such foods or generally in respect of such areas as Government may by notification direct.

1This Ordinance was promulgated by the Governor of West Pakistan on 20th Nov., 1959; published in the West Pakistan Gazette (Extraordinary), dated 11th March, 1960; pages 1445-64; saved and given permanent effect by Article 225 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan (1962).

This Ordinance was published in the Gazette of West Pakistan (Extraordinary) dated 11.03.1960, pages 1445-1464.

4Ibid.

5Ibid.

6Substituted by the West Pakistan Pure Food (Amendment) Act, 1963 (II of 1963); and published in the Gazette of West Pakistan (Extraordinary), dated 13.4.1963, pages 1537-1539, s.2.

2. Definitions.— In this Ordinance, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say—

(1) “adulterated food” means an article of food—

(i) which is not of the nature, substance or quality which it purports or is represented to be, or

(ii) which contains any such extraneous substance as may affect adversely the nature, substance or quality thereof, or

(iii) which is processed, mixed, coloured, powdered or coated with any other substance in contravention of the rules, or

(iv) any constituent of which has been wholly or in part abstracted so as to affect injuriously its nature, substance or quality, or

(v) which contains any poisonous or other ingredient which may render it injurious to health, or

(vi) the quality or purity of which does not conform to the prescribed standard, or

(vii) which having been prepared, packed or kept under insanitary conditions, has been contaminated or become injurious to health;

(2) “banaspati” means such article of food resembling ghee as is prepared by hydrogenation of edible vegetable oil and contains no milk or animal fat;

(3) “butter” means an article of food derived exclusively from the milk of cow or buffalo or from cream or dahi prepared from such milk, whether with or without salt or other prescribed preservative;

(4) “charbi” means an article of food which resembles ghee or banaspati, but contains animal fat other than milk fat;

(5) “Chemical Examiner” means—

(i) the 10 [Chief] Chemical Examiner to Government, and

(ii) any other officer appointed by Government to be the 11 [Chief] Chemical Examiner for the purposes of this Ordinance;

26[11. Licence for manufacture, storage and sale of goods.— (1) No place shall be used—
   (a) for the preparation, or the manufacturing, processing, blending, preserving, refrigerating, canning or bottling of any food;
   (b) for the business of a wholesale dealer in banaspati, charbi, ghee, margarine, fish oil, mustard oil, cotton seed oil or other edible oils and such food as may be prescribed;
   (c) as a creamery, dairy or bakery;
   (d) as a hotel, restaurant or eating house;
   except under a licence to be granted in such manner and by such authority as may be prescribed:
   Provided that Government may exempt any specified premises or class of premises from the operation of this section.
   (2) The licence required under this section may be renewed annually on payment of prescribed fees.
   (3) The renewal of a licence may be refused, or a licence may be cancelled by the authority granting the licence, if—
      (i) the licensee fails to maintain the register referred to in section 12, or is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance; or
      (ii) the premises is not maintained in such condition as may be prescribed.
   (4) No person shall keep or store for sale, or sell or offer to sell any food for human consumption unless he is in possession of such identification permit as may be prescribed.

27[12. Register for manufacture and wholesale business.— Every occupier of a place used for the preparation or manufacture for the purposes of trade of any such article of food as Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify in this behalf, and every wholesale dealer or his agent who stores any such article, shall keep and maintain a register in such form as may be prescribed, and such register shall be open to inspection, by the Inspector.

28[13. Food poisoning.— (1) If a Health Officer or an Inspector has reason to suspect that any food or any vessel or utensil with which food may come in contact is likely to cause food poisoning (acute, chronic or cumulative) by chemical or bacteriological agents, he may take a sample of such food or the vessel or the utensil for analysis under this Ordinance, and if he takes a sample, give notice to the person incharge of the food that, until the result of the analysis is known, the food or any specified portion thereof shall not be used and shall be kept or removed in the manner specified in the notice.

27Substituted by the West Pakistan Pure Food (Amendment) Act, 1965 (V of 1965); and published in the Gazette of West Pakistan (Extraordinary), dated 4.1.1966, pages 25-A to 25-N, s.11.
28Ibid., s.12.
If a Health Officer has reason to suspect that tuberculosis is likely to be caused by the consumption of milk supplied from any dairy or other source, he may, by notice to the person in charge of such dairy or source, prohibit the supply of milk from such dairy or source.

If a person is, in the opinion of the Local Authority, suffering from any communicable disease, the Local Authority may, by notice to such person, prohibit him from preparing, manufacturing, selling or offering to sell any article of food for human consumption.

A Health Officer may, by notice to any person handling articles of food in any hotel, restaurant, sweetmeat shop, or any other public eating place, require him to obtain and keep in his possession a health certificate from a Health Officer to the effect that he is free from communicable disease, and to get it renewed from year to year, till such time as he continues so to handle such articles.

Every person to whom a notice under this section has been given shall comply with such notice.

Wherever practicable, the Health Officer shall instruct the owner of the dairy or other source from which milk is supplied to carry out such remedial measures as considered necessary by him, and if these are complied with to his satisfaction, the notice issued under sub-section (2) shall be withdrawn.

Explanation— Persons debarred under sub-section (3) shall have to produce a certificate as laid down in sub-section (4).

PART III

ANALYSIS OF FOOD

14. Appointment of Analyst.— Government may, by notification, appoint Public Analysts for the purposes of this Ordinance, for the whole or any part of the Province, for any specified food or generally for all foods.

15. Local Authorities to enforce the Ordinance.— It shall be the function of every Local Authority to carry into execution and enforce the provisions of this Ordinance within its jurisdiction with a view that all articles of food and drink are sold in a pure and genuine state.

16. Appointment of Inspectors.— (1) Government may appoint Inspectors in respect of all or any specified food, and an Inspector so appointed shall have jurisdiction in such area as Government may direct.

(2) Subject to any rules made in this behalf, a Local Authority shall appoint Inspectors in respect of all or any specified food and an Inspector so appointed, shall, unless the Local Authority otherwise directs, exercise the powers and perform the functions of an Inspector under this Ordinance throughout the area over which such Local Authority has jurisdiction.

(3) The Director may exercise the powers and perform the functions of an Inspector under this Ordinance or any other officer working under the Director may exercise such powers and perform such functions of an Inspector within such area as the Director may, by order in writing, direct.

(4) The Health Officers and Sanitary Inspectors of Local Authorities and such other holders of offices and posts in or under a Local Authority and such officers in the service of Government, as Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify in this behalf, shall be ex-officio Inspectors in respect of all foods within the limits of their respective jurisdiction.]

17. General powers of Inspectors.— (1) An Inspector may detain and search any vehicle or package of any food intended for sale or in the course of delivery if he has reason to suspect that the food therein carried or contained may be injurious to health, unwholesome or unfit for human consumption or is not of the same nature, substance or quality which it purports to be:

Provided that nothing in this section shall authorise the detention of any vehicles belonging to the railways.

(2) An Inspector may—

(i) enter into and inspect any market, godown, shop, stall or other place used for the sale of any food intended for human consumption or for the preparation, manufacture or storage of any such food for the purposes of trade or sale;

(ii) enter upon any premises for the purposes of exercising the powers of purchasing or taking a sample under section 18 and may in such premises inspect and examine any food and any apparatus, utensil or vessel used for preparing, manufacturing or containing such food;

(iii) enter into and inspect any market, godown, shop, stall or other place used for the manufacture, storage or sale of any apparatus, utensil or vessel ordinarily used or intended to be used or likely to be used for preparing, manufacturing or containing any food.]

(3) If any such food as is mentioned in sub-section (1) or clause (i) of sub-section (2) appears to the Inspector to be injurious to health, unwholesome, unfit for human consumption or not of the same nature, substance or quality which it purports to be, or not fulfilling the prescribed conditions subject to which such food is to be prepared, manufactured, kept, stored or sold, or if any such apparatus or utensil as is mentioned in clause (ii) of sub-section(2) is of such kind or in such state as to render any food prepared, manufactured or contained therein unwholesome or unfit for human consumption or injurious to health, he may seize and remove such food, apparatus or utensil to be dealt with as hereinafter provided.]

(4) An Inspector may, instead of removing such food, apparatus, utensil or vessel seized under sub-section (3), leave the same in the custody of the person from whose possession, custody or control the same was seized or in such safe custody as he may deem fit, so as to be dealt with as hereinafter provided; and he may at any time thereafter remove the same to the custody of the [Local Authority] concerned.

(5)(a) When any food, apparatus, utensil or vessel is seized under sub-section (3), it may be destroyed by the officer making the seizure with the consent [in writing] of the owner or the person in whose possession, custody or control it is found.

(b) If any food seized under sub-section (3) is of a perishable nature and is, in the opinion of the Inspector, unsound, unwholesome or unfit for human consumption it may be destroyed without such consent but in the presence of two respectable witnesses.

(6) An Inspector shall prepare a statement describing the food, apparatus or utensil seized and shall deliver a copy thereof to the Local Authority and to the person from whose custody the food, apparatus or utensil is seized, or, if such person be not present, send such copy to him by post.

(7)(a) Any person claiming anything seized under sub-section (3) may within seven days of the seizure complain to any [[Special Court [* * *]] having jurisdiction at the place of seizure, who, after making such enquiry as he may deem necessary, may either confirm or disallow such seizure wholly or in part or may order the article to be restored to the claimant;

(b) If the [[Special Court] confirms the seizure, the food, apparatus, utensil or vessel, as the case may be, shall be forfeited to the [[Local Authority] concerned or the [[Special Court] may direct that such food,

[18. Purchase of samples, etc.– (1) An Inspector may, for the purpose of analysis, purchase a sample of food–

(a) in transit;
(b) sold, offered for sale, hawked about, kept or stored or received for the purpose of preparing therewith any food; or
(c) kept or stored in a market, godown, shop, stall, hotel, restaurant or eating house for the purpose of trade or sale or received therein for the purpose of preparing or manufacturing therewith any food.

(2) No person shall refuse to sell food to an Inspector intending to purchase for the purpose of sub-section (1) in such reasonable quantity and from such container as he may ask for.

Explanation– The purchase or sale of a sample of any food for the purpose of analysis under this Ordinance shall be deemed to be purchased or sold for human consumption or use.

(3) If, in contravention of sub-section (2), any person refuses to sell the food to the Inspector, the Inspector may, without prejudice to any penalty to which such person may be liable for such contravention, seize such quantity of the food as may appear to him to be necessary, and shall give such person a certificate showing the price, nature and quantity of the food seized, the date, time and place of seizure, and on demand being made in that behalf, the price of the food seized.

(4) The Inspector shall prepare in such form as may be prescribed, a declaration in triplicate containing full particulars relating to the sample seized and such declaration shall be signed or marked both by the Inspector and the person from

(5) When a sample is taken from the stock in the possession of a commission agent, he shall be bound to give the name and such other particulars of the person on whose behalf such stock is held by him as the Inspector may require.]

20. Methods of taking samples.— (1) An Inspector after purchasing or procuring or seizing any food with the intention of submitting the same for analysis shall, forthwith, divide the food in three parts to be then and there separated and each part shall be marked, sealed or fastened in such manner as the nature of the case will permit; and the person from whom the sample is taken may, if he so desires, also affix his seal or mark on each of the three parts.

(2) An Inspector shall—

(a) if required to do so, deliver one part to the person from whom the article is purchased or seized or the sample is taken;

(b) retain one part for future comparison; and

(c) submit one part to the Public Analyst:

Provided that where the sample is taken from any food which is about to be imported or is in transit or at the place of delivery to the purchaser, consumer or consignee or is unclaimed, the first-mentioned part of the sample shall be retained by Inspector, unless the name and address of the consignor appear on the container containing the article sampled, in which case he shall forward that part to the consignor by registered post or otherwise, together with a notice informing that person that the sample would be analysed by the Public Analyst.

21. Certificate of Analyst.— (1) The Public Analyst upon receiving any food or a sample of food from the Inspector shall, as soon as possible, analyse the same and deliver or send to the Inspector forwarding the sample, on payment of such fees as may be prescribed, a certificate in the form specified in the Schedule I showing the result of the analysis.

in excess of the quantities mentioned in Schedule II appended to this Ordinance, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to two million rupees but which shall not be less than five hundred thousand rupees.

23B. Substandard or misbranded food.— Any person who manufactures for sale, stores, sells, distributes, imports or exports any food which is not of the requisite standard or is misbranded, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months but which shall not be less than one month and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than one hundred thousand rupees.

23C. Unsafe food.— (1) An occupier, who manufactures for sale, stores, sells, distributes, imports or exports any unsafe or unwholesome food, shall be liable:

(a) where the unsafe food does not result in injury to any person, to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months but which shall not be less than one month and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than one hundred thousand rupees;

(b) where such unsafe food results in injury to any person, to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years but which shall not be less than three months and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than one hundred thousand rupees; or

(c) where such unsafe food results in death of a person, to imprisonment for a term which may extend to imprisonment for life but which shall not be less than ten years and fine which may extend to three million rupees but which shall not be less than two million rupees.

(2) In this section and section 23D, ‘unsafe food’ means the food whose nature, substance or quality is so affected by any means or for any reasons as to render it injurious to human health.

23D. Unhygienic or unsanitary conditions.— Any person, who manufactures or processes or keeps any food under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months but which shall not be less than three days and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than twenty thousand rupees.

23E. Business without licence.— If a person manufactures, sells, offers for sale, stores or distributes or imports any food without licence, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year but which shall not be less than three days and fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees but which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees.

23F. False advertisement.— (1) Any person, who for purposes of effecting or promoting the sale of any food, publishes or causes to be published, any advertisement which—

(a) falsely describes any food, or
(b) is contrary to any rules or regulations; or
(c) is likely to deceive a purchaser with regard to the character, nature, value, substance, quality, strength, purity, composition, merit or safety, weight, proportion, origin, age or effects of any food or of any ingredient or constituent of the food, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to two million rupees but which shall not be less than one million rupees.

(2) Any person, who publishes or causes to be published an advertisement, which does not contain the true name of the person by whom the advertisement is published or the address of his place of business, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to two million rupees but which shall not be less than one million rupees.

23G. False labeling.— (1) Any person, who prepares, packages, labels any food which does not comply with the prescribed standard, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than five hundred thousand rupees.

(2) Any person, who labels any food in a manner which is false, misleading or deceptive as regards its character, nature, value, substance, quality, composition, merit or safety, strength, purity, weight, origin, age or proportion shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than five hundred thousand rupees.

23H. Residuary offences.— Subject to this Part, if a person violates any provision of the Ordinance and no penalty is prescribed for such violation, he shall be liable to imprisonment which may extend to one year or fine which may extend to one million rupees or both.

23I. Punishment for subsequent offence.— (1) If any person, after having been previously convicted of an offence under this Ordinance, again commits any offence under the Ordinance, he shall be liable to:

(a) twice the punishment of imprisonment and fine, which is provided for the offence under the Ordinance; and

(b) an additional fine which may extend to two hundred thousand rupees.

(2) The licence of a person convicted under sub-section (1) shall be cancelled.

23J. Compensation for injury to consumer.— (1) In case of injury or death of a consumer due to unsafe food, the Special Court, in addition to any other penalty under this Ordinance, shall direct the responsible person to pay compensation to the consumer or legal heirs of the consumer, an amount which is:

(a) not less than one million rupees in case of death; and

(b) not exceeding five hundred thousand rupees in case of injury.
23K. Cognizance of offences.—(1) An offence under this Ordinance shall be cognizable on a complaint of an officer authorized by the Government.

(2) If the offence causes death of, or injury to, a person, the aggrieved person may also file a complaint in the Special Court under Chapter XVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898 (V of 1898).

(3) The offences under section 23A and clauses (b) and (c) of section 23C shall be non-bailable.

23L. Special Court.—(1) An offence punishable under this Ordinance shall be exclusively triable by the Special Court established by the Government and where it establishes more than one Special Courts, it shall specify the territorial limits within which each Special Court shall exercise jurisdiction under the Ordinance.

(2) A Special Court shall consist of a presiding officer and two technical members.

(3) The Government shall send a panel of two or more persons to the Chief Justice of Lahore High Court and the Chief Justice shall recommend a person in the panel for appointment as the presiding officer of a Special Court.

(4) Subject to subsection (3), the Government may appoint a person as presiding officer of a Special Court who has not less than:

(a) five years’ experience as a Magistrate first class; or

(b) ten years’ experience as a prosecutor, law officer or advocate; or

(c) ten years’ experience in the service of Pakistan and is a law graduate.

(5) The Government shall appoint a person as technical member of a Special Court and determine terms and conditions of service of the presiding officer and technical members in the prescribed manner.

(6) The presiding officer and at least one technical member shall constitute quorum for a sitting of a Special Court.

(7) A decision of a Special Court shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the majority, or if the case has been decided by the presiding officer and only one of the members and there is a difference of opinion between them, the decision of the Special Court shall be expressed in terms of the opinion of the presiding officer.

(8) If the Special Court is not established or it is not functional in an area, a Magistrate exercising powers under section 30 of the Code for the area shall be deemed to be Special Court under this Ordinance.

23M. Summary trial.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code but subject to sub-section (3), the Special Court shall summarily try an offence punishable under this Ordinance and may impose punishment of imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or fine not exceeding one million rupees.

(2) The Special Court shall conduct the summary trial of an offence under the Ordinance in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XXII of the Code relating to the summary trials.
If the Special Court is of opinion that the nature of the offence does not justify summary trial, it may conduct proceedings in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XX of the Code.

23N. Appeal.— (1) The Government or the person sentenced by a Special Court may, within thirty days from the date of communication of the order, file an appeal against a final order of the Special Court to Lahore High Court.

(2) Save as provided in this Ordinance or rules, no court shall take cognizance or revise a sentence, or transfer any case from a Special Court, or make order under sections 426, 491 or 498 of the Code or have jurisdiction of any kind in respect of any proceedings of the Special Court.

23O. Transfer of cases.— (1) A case regarding any matter within the jurisdiction of a Special Court, pending in any court immediately before the establishment of a Special Court under this Ordinance, shall stand transferred to the Special Court which has jurisdiction to try such case.

(2) Lahore High Court may transfer a case from one Special Court to another Special Court or from a Special Court to any other court or from any other court to a Special Court.

24. Presumption.— In every prosecution under this Ordinance relating to any food the Court shall presume—

(a) that any food found in possession of any person, who is or has been habitually found manufacturing, selling, keeping, storing, offering or exposing for sale or hawking about such food, was being manufactured, sold, kept, stored, offered or exposed for sale or hawked about by such person;

(b) that any food commonly used for human consumption is sold, kept or stored for human consumption;

(c) that any food commonly used for human consumption, which is found on premises used for the preparation or manufacture of such food, was intended to be prepared or manufactured for human consumption;

(d) that any substance capable of being used in the manufacture or preparation of any food commonly used for human consumption, which is found on premises in which such food is manufactured or prepared, was intended to be used in the manufacture or preparation of such food;

(e) that any food is not of the nature, substance or quality it purports to be, if it is deficient in any of its normal constituents to the extent specified in the rules made under this Ordinance or if any extraneous matter has been added to it in contravention of such rules.

25. Declaration under section 18 to be evidence.— A declaration signed or marked under sub-section (4) of section 18 may be produced as evidence of the facts contained therein in any enquiry, trial or other proceedings under this Ordinance.
26. Certificate of Public Analyst to be evidence of fact therein stated.— (1) The production in any enquiry, trial or other proceeding under this Ordinance of a certificate under the hand of a Public Analyst in the form specified in the Schedule shall, until the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated.

(2) When any person is accused of an offence under this Ordinance, he may require the Court to summon as a witness the Public Analyst who analysed the food or sample of food in respect of which he is accused of having committed an offence and the Court may, and shall, in every case in which the accused deposits in the Court a sum of money in accordance with the scale prescribed, summon the Public Analyst, and if such person is acquitted, any sum of money so deposited shall be refunded to him.

27. Analysis by [Chief] Chemical Examiner.— (1) The Court may of its own accord or on the request of the accused cause any food or sample of food to be sent for analysis to the [Chief] Chemical Examiner to Government, who shall thereupon with all convenient speed analyse the same and report the result of the analysis to the Court in the form specified in the Schedule, and the cost of such analysis shall be paid by the accused if the Court so directs.

(2) The certificate of the [Chief] Chemical Examiner to Government shall, until the contrary is proved, be sufficient evidence of the facts therein stated, but if the Court considers it necessary in the interests of justice it may summon him to give evidence in connection with the certificate issued by him, and in such a case the cost of summoning the [Chief] Chemical Examiner to Government shall be paid by the accused or the [Local Authority] as the Court may direct.

(3) The provisions of sub-section [(3)] of section 21 shall apply in respect of the report of the [Chief] Chemical Examiner.
